FAITH

God is so awesome!!! As many of you know, the men's walk was in jeopardy of being canceled. The board had moved the registration deadline to 2 weeks before the walks. This was to facilitate the notification of sponsors and pilgrims so they would be properly prepared for the walks. Between all our worry, we placed this issue at the foot of the cross. We believed that if God wanted this walk to happen... it would regardless of anything we did. We also prayed that God's will would be done. Many of you received emails encouraging you to sponsor pilgrims and to pray for this issue as well.

Having Faith that God would take control. That is all we needed. We now have more than 20 men registered for this walk and God knew it all along. He put the team together and he placed each pilgrim on this walk for His purpose.

This is no different than any area of our life. Sometimes it is so hard for us to give up control, we seem to love to worry about things. God is patiently waiting for us to release our burdens and worry to him. Until we let go, God cannot work.

So I encourage you all to look at the burdens that you are holding on to. I encourage you to look at what you are worrying so much about. God cares about those issues even more than you do.

Let Go and Let God!
